FOREIGN TABLE FARE

PERSONNEL IN CHARGE AND COLORS AND DECORATION

Choicest Home-Prepared Viands Will Be Served By Well Organized Staff of Directors and Assistants.

If the "foreign lunch" tables at the fair to be given in aid of the Catholic Sisters school on Saturday the 30th inst., are not a success, gastronomically as well as financially, it will not be for lack of ability, zeal and earnest effort on the part of Mrs. Hassinger and her able staff of lady friends who have charge of this particular "feature" of the fair.

What with this and the separate annual for Hawaiian food, under the superintendence of Miss Lucy Peabody, ably supported, and where will be found every known native delicacy prepared and served in Hawaiian style, there will be ample variety to tempt the inner man and the patrons of the fair will be able to take their choice of viands with no fear for lack of tempting food to suit the individual taste, nor want of prompt attention from the willing hands of well known ladies who will take the role of servers on this occasion.

For the "foreign food" tables, the program has just been made complete and all the sub-committees are hard at work on details. A representative of the Bulletin has been favored with a glance over the systematic "Order of Business" which reads as follows:

Foreign Food Tables.

The chairman on "foreign food tables" is already preparing the advance sheets of her report to the executive committee and it is very interesting to look over the list of those who have not only contributed liberally of provision, but who are pledged to the more laborious and responsible task of making fish and other salads, of roasting turkeys and making chicken pies, of cooking hams so that they will be sweet and juicy; pledged, in fact to do all these things in such manner as to win the applause of the patrons of the fair, and whose commendation is to be their only reward; a list, that were the names made known in advance, would gladden the hearts of all these charitable lady workers.
